

THE WORD of GOD

Compared to Satan's
Counterfeit Bibles

God's Word The 1611 King James Bible

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.” 2 Timothy 3:16

“The words of the Lord are pure words” “Thou shalt keep them, O Lord, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.” Psalms 12:6,7

“Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.” Matthew 24:35

“When he (Satan) speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.” John 8:44
“For God is not the author of confusion (Satan is).”
1 Corinthians 14:33

“Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,” “Who changed the truth of God into a lie.”
Romans 1:22,25

The 1611 King James Bible was translated from the “Textus Receptus” (Received Text). These are the manuscripts all the Early Christians recognized as the Inerrant, Infallible, Word of God. And these are the scriptures which came from Antioch were the disciples were first called Christians (Acts 11:26). All the translators came to an untimely end at the hands of God's Antichrist enemies.

All the other Bible translations are actually Roman Catholic which came from Alexandria, Egypt that are the Vaticanus and Siniaticus manuscripts. In spite of the fact that the Vaticanus and Siniaticus disagree with each other over 3,000 times and disagree with the Textus Receptus 5,337 times just in the Gospels alone. Also 998 other manuscripts disagree with them also. Whenever Satan's counterfeit manuscripts disagreed with God's Textus Receptus, the translators choose to use Satan's instead. The American Bible Publishers have even taken the Letter of Dedication out of the front of all King James Bibles today. In it, God's translators, recognized the Pope as "The Man of Sin" and said they would be persecuted by "Popish Persons," who still desire to keep the people in "ignorance and darkness." They have even made word, spelling and doctrine changes in their supposed King James Bibles. England's Cambridge King James Bible still remains God's Holy Bible. Chick Publications, www.chick.com also offer King James Bibles.

The Siniaticus manuscript was found in a pile of trash in 1844 at St. Catherine's Roman Catholic Monastery, near Mt. Sinai.

The Vaticanus manuscript was found in the Vatican's Library in 1481. It omits Genesis 1:1-46:28, Psalms 106-138, Matthew 16:2,3, all of Paul's Letters, Hebrews 9:14-13:25, and all of Revelation, and lots more.

God's Word contains 3,568,489 Letters,
810,697 Words, 31,175 Verses and 1,189 Chapters,
not more and not less.

Gunpowder

While the U.S. has its Fourth of July, complete with fireworks and revelry, England also has November 5 and it appears their celebration outdoes ours. All over the country "bonfire societies" field multiple parades complete with massive firework displays. One example in the news recently was a small town of 16,000 called Lewes, which hosts some 60,000 visitors who joined the festivities.

So, what is so special about November 5? It's Guy Fawkes Day!

Those who know the history of the holiday, know the significance of the "gunpowder plot" that got Fawkes and some of his buddies executed. But, if Fawkes had succeeded in igniting the fuse to 36 barrels of gunpowder, you and I might have a very different Bible to read today.

The year was 1605, just 6 years before the publication of the King James Bible that became the standard English scriptures for some 400 years. King James had been petitioned by the Puritans to authorize the translation of a "new and completely accurate" English Bible. He immediately commissioned over 50 scholars from Oxford and Cambridge to begin the work. The men chosen were the most learned of their day not only in linguistics but biblical theology. Many of them were fluent in up to 14 languages.

All this was happening in the middle of a pitched battle between the leaders of the Reformation and the Vatican. And the Bible was the prize in that war. For over 100 years the Reformers had fought to print the Bible in the language of the people. The Vatican had commissioned the Jesuits and the Dominicans with the task of destroying those Bibles. Politics had become one of the battlefields with the rulers of England alternating between Protestant and Catholic.

At this point, King James was Protestant and almost literally had a bull's eye on his back. Jesuit agents cooked the "gunpowder plot" to tunnel under the Parliament building and set off a massive explosive while it was in session. Their hope was to kill King James and as many of the Members of Parliament as possible.

Guy Fawkes was enlisted by the pope to carry out the plan. He and about half-a-dozen other men started the tunnel and eventually positioned 36 barrels of gunpowder in place. In their attempt to carry out their plan, they met one problem after another so that, looking back, the Lord was surely toying with their little plan. During the digging, they hit an unexpected wall underground. But a cellar was discovered that gave them the required access. Next, Parliament delayed meeting for several months and the powder got wet and had to be replaced. Finally one of the men wrote a letter warning a Catholic friend to stay away from the building on a certain date. The letter ended up in the hands of the king who discovered the scheme just hours before the targeted meeting.

November 5th was legislated a national day of thanksgiving for deliverance from “papists.” Today, it is celebrated as a fun festival with few recognizing the continued dangers of Roman Catholicism. But had the pope not lost that battle, you and I might be reading a Roman Catholic Bible, if we were even allowed to possess one.

But the story of the war waged by the Vatican to stop God’s word for the common people is not over. Today gunpowder is not the only weapon of choice, it is ecumenism and polluted bibles. David W. Daniels explains many fascinating details of this 500-year war and the present state of hostilities, in his book, Did the Catholic Church Give Us the Bible?, available from Chick Publications. www.chick.com

Doctrine Changes in the new Bible Versions

The Trinity of God, The Father, Son and Holy Ghost (Spirit), the three are God manifest in three Persons. When referring to the Holy Spirit they change the capital “S” to a small “s”. They change the third person of the Trinity of God, the Holy Spirit into a force and not a Person. This is Blasphemy.

If your bible has a small “s” it is one of the counterfeit bibles, even if it’s called a King James.

Check these verses:

Genesis 1:2; 41:38
Judges 3:10; 6:34; 11:29; 13:25; 14:6; 14:19; 15:14
1 Samuel 10:6; 10:10; 11:6; 16:13,14; 19:20,23
1 Kings 18:12; 22:24
2 Kings 2:16
2 Chronicles 15:1; 18:23; 20:14; 24:20
Job 33:4
Isaiah 40:13; 48:16; 59:19; 61:1; 63:10,11,14
Ezekiel 11:5,24
Matthew 4:1

They change words, spelling and add and remove.
