Biography

Eldon Cory Pierson, 32, of Harbor Beach, passed away from injuries sustained from a tragic accident on June 25, 2022. Eldon was born July 3, 1989, to Sandra "Sam" (Wright) Gobie and Allen "Mike" Pierson in Deckerville, Michigan. He married Gabrielle Leidy on March 28, 2019 in Las Vegas. He lived most of his life in Minden City and graduated from Ubyly High School in 2007. Eldon worked as a butcher at both Weltin & Maurer Meatpacking, before joining his dad at Pierson Piling as a foreman/operator building seawalls. He would often collect interesting stones and rocks from job sites and enjoyed watching eagles over the water. Eldon had his own unique style. Each time you saw him, he would either have a different hair color or a new tattoo. He took pride in his talent for finding the most bizarre items from multiple pawn shops. Eldon liked tearing up the go-cart tracks with his wife on weekends and aspired to open his own track someday. Other things Eldon enjoyed were spending time with his children, fishing, kayaking, skateboarding, and hunting & target shooting with his brother. Another hobby he had consisted of driving anything with a motor on it. If it didn't have a motor, he would figure out a way to put one on it. Eldon was very creative and artistic. He would often paint or draw on anything he could make bright and colorful. Eldon was a free-spirited, rebellious individual who undoubtedly lived his life to the fullest.
