Approved Paint Palettes (updated April 22, 2018)

How to Obtain Approval to Repaint Your House in Casa del Cielo

1. Choose your colors. Casa de Cielo residents have their choice of using five custom paint palettes which may be found in color on the Scottsdale Ranch website at https://www.dunnedwards.com/colors/archive/color-ark_pro/scottsdale-ranch/casa-del-cielo.

   You may also visit the SRCA Community Center for paint samples, or go to any Dunn Edwards store. All colors are listed using Dunn Edwards paint codes, but you may go to other paint stores and instruct them to use the Dunn Edwards colors.

   The ONLY approved palettes are:

Each palette contains options for primary colors and trim colors. Primary and trim colors from different palettes may NOT be used together.

A primary color must be used for the house body color.

As a trim color, you may choose the body color, one of the primary colors not used on the body or a trim color.

The chimney and chimney cap must be painted with either the house body color or trim color, except that houses with blue tiles may paint their chimney cap a matching blue.

2. Complete and submit an application to Scottsdale Ranch Community Association. YOU MUST COMPLETE AN APPLICATION AND RECEIVE APPROVAL EVEN IF REPAINTING YOUR HOUSE THE SAME COLOR. This is the only way to ensure that your house file is up to date and for you to know you have complied with SRCA and CdC rules. SRCA will review your application and forward it to the CdC Architectural Control Committee for its review and approval, and you will be notified when you may begin your project. Allow up to three weeks although SRCA and CdC review applications as quickly as possible.
