May 17 PFOC General Meeting -7:30 pm

Location: North Mountain Visitor Center,
12950 N. 7th St., Phoenix

Program: Join us for a presentation on doing draftwork with your dog. Teaching your dog to pull a cart or wagon can lead to all kinds of fun from participating in parades to earning draft titles. With patient training, many dogs can learn to draft. That includes not only traditional drafting breeds but also breeds as small as a Basenji or Parson Russell Terrier. Everyone is welcome; so bring a friend!

Don't forget to complete and mail your nominations for the TAB award and Charity award, PFOC Awards for your dog's new titles, membership renewal, and June banquet.

Stewards needed for future AKC trials.
Please contact Sybil Smith if you are available to steward at up-coming trials. 928 699 4843, udali92@gmail.com

PFOC's last training classes until fall will begin April 15! Enroll now.

Marilyn Bennett reminds everyone our training classes need new volunteers, apprentices to be part of our training classes beginning in April. We will need volunteers to teach, help with our fall classes. Contact Marilyn.

PFOC hopes to be at Encanto Park for fall training classes; the park district has made no promises as to where our training classes will be located.

2018-2019 Phoenix Field & Obedience Club Awards Application Form

The purpose of PFOC's annual awards is to honor members who, with their dogs, have won obedience and other dog-related titles. The following policy is reviewed at least every 3 years. It shall be effective as of January 1, 2018.

I. Qualifications for an award:

- A. The applicant must be a PFOC member in good standing.
- B. The applicant must be the owner of the dog or a member of the immediate family or household of the owner.
- C. The applicant must have trained and shown the dog in earning the title being applied for.
- D. An applicant must have earned an AKC Beginner Novice or more advanced obedience title or a Rally Novice title to receive the original plaque.

II. One free plaque will be awarded per dog. Plaques are wooden and display the PFOC logo. A metal plate engraved with the dog's registered name and breed will appear on the plaque.

III. After the applicant has qualified for the original plaque, in accordance with I-A through D above, the applicant may apply for engraved metal plates recognizing individual titles. These will include title name and date earned. All non-AKC awards will have the awarding organization's initials appear before the title (example: NADAC, USDAA, ASCA). Metal plates may be purchased at a cost of $7 each.

IV. All applications for all title awards must be accompanied by a copy of the title-awarding organization's certificate or acknowledgement of the title. If you have not received the certificate yet, a list of the shows or tests in which the dog received credits for the title must be sent. If you are applying for awards for multiple dogs, please use one application per dog and include copies of all titles being applied for.
