Biography

Heaven gained a precious angel as Doreen Miller, 94, of Pigeon, went to her eternal home on June 24, 2024 at Country Gardens Assisted Living in Pigeon. Doreen was born December 11, 1929 in Highland Park, Michigan to the late Rev. Robert and C. Jennie (Goldsworthy) McLean. In 1947 she graduated from Grass Lake High School and then attended Michigan State College. She married Ernest Wayne Miller on June 28, 1952 at the Bad Axe Methodist Church officiated by her father; Wayne preceded her in death on February 26, 2023. Doreen was a woman of strong Christian faith and served her church on many committees, especially the United Methodist Women. Doreen was employed at Scheurer Hospital and was also a member of the Scheurer Hospital Auxiliary. She was Girl Scout leader for many years. Her all-time favorite hobby was watching her beloved MSU Spartans play basketball and football. She loved to play bridge, read, and was a wonderful cook to her family and friends' dinner parties. Doreen loved the time spent at their cottage in Bay View, and embraced the Bay View Community, her neighbors, church services and especially the concerts.
