From Pastor Bill's Study

Greetings to all,

In the wake of the special conference to establish the standard by which United Methodist will follow there has been much said, there has been much written, and much misunderstanding.

If anyone had a doubt I believe in the sanctity of the Bible and the wording of the Book of Discipline (BOD) as a standard to live by. I am finding out there are many within our denomination who say they cannot abide by these archaic words. This is a new day and we need to adapt to the changes that surround us.

What I feel and believe that yes we are living in a new world but that does not mean we need to forget the truth and find a new understanding of Biblical truth. If this is so I did not receive the memo so until I do I will follow the last order until a new order is given.

There has also been much discussion as to the hatred of those who have viewed the Traditional Plan as a direction in which the church should go. They voice how hateful it is against anyone who is not just like those who follow this course. We are called homophobic and narrow in our view. If that is the case then I will say narrow is the way into heaven.

Several years I took the stand that it is not what I am for it is what I am against. I am against the idea that we hate those not like us and are driving them away. The fact is I love them enough to offer to them the grace of Christ for salvation.

What I am against is blessing those who are living in sin. This goes across the board as is not tied to just one sin or one individual group. When Jesus spoke in Matthew 5: 17-20 I believe it is clear that the Levitical laws were not replaced but what Jesus offered was grace and forgiveness to overcome our sinfulness.

I also know I am not the final judge, as a matter of fact, I am not to judge anyone, but I can love someone enough to bring them to Christ for his advice.

I have been asked where do we go from here? If you listen to those around there is much talk of schism and a start of a new order of Methodism. I can only base my beliefs on who is it we are following? The ideas of the new generation and leading of Post Modernism or a Biblical understanding of interpretation as our understanding.

In many ways, history will be our judge as to which way is correct. For me and my house, we will follow Christ as he will have the final word. I will leave you with a statement that made at the conference when one of the delegates state "Better division on truth the unity in a lie."

Malachi 3:6-7

Lay Leader's Report

I completed the first of my four six-week on-line courses in spiritual formation (BeADisciple.com IFDC-220, entitled "Spiritual Disciplines for Personal and Parish Renewal"), having posted my final submission to the leader on March 6. I was one of 14 students from around the country, and once the last of our weekly papers gets graded and the whole body of each person's work over the length of IFDC-220 is put together and evaluated, we'll all be told how we did.

The next course in the spiritual formation series, IFDC-210 entitled "Teaching Biblical Faith for Spiritual Formation", is set to begin on March 11 and run through April 26 (with a break for holy Week). I had said earlier that personal considerations would prevent me from taking part in the 210 course, but I since recanted and enrolled in it anyway. It, too, will be a six-week on-line course, and I've already obtained the three textbooks for it.

Milton's Good News

Leadership Team (Ad Board) Report....

The devotions that began the March 19 Leadership Team meeting were based on Matthew 28 and on the topic of "angels." Angels have been in vogue lately, and while we shouldn't get caught up in thinking about them to the exclusion of God, we ponder this - who in our life has been an angel?

Some of the meeting-opening period was devoted to discussing Chapter 3 in the Kotan book entitled 'The Necessary Nine', which concerns "adopting a bias for action." We have the perfect tools to keep what we have now as a church, but the key is what we want our church to become – what to add, what to remove.

We need to build relationships with people in our community as a prelude to inviting their engagement with God in our company. Furthermore, our congregation must be part of our decision-making process, this notion bringing on a discussion of the possible revival of the church-wide visioning meetings we held in past years.

Our detailed internal income and expense reports, current through the end of February, show normal activity, expected cash flows, and healthy account balances. In addition, the church books have been completely and successfully audited for calendar 2018, and the results have been forwarded to District as mandated.

We note that our boxed gifting envelopes for this year include enough spares to cover each and all of the "5th Sundays" on the 2019 calendar. We will announce that to our congregations as appropriate.

Trustees Report

At the January Leadership Team Meeting the group discussed meeting with the Investment Advisors, as had been done in the past with the Trustees. On February 18 both representatives from Prudential and Hudock Capital Group met with the leadership team to review the current balances, recent performance, and discuss any recommended changes to portfolios. As of the end of 2018 the values of the two accounts we have with Prudential were approximately $539,800 and $84,700. Hudock Capital reported the balance on the current date to be approximately $581,300. The Prudential representatives recommended a minor change to higher yield bonds in the portfolio, but keeping the same percentage allocations across stocks, bonds, money markets, and cash. Since we don't have any major projects planned at this time, the representative from Hudock recommended we leave our current portfolio allocations with them unchanged.

In other Trustee happenings, with the help of A&S Mechanical we were able to change the water system backflow preventer in the church from a commercial to a residential model. The benefit of a residential model is that it only needs tested every five years, which will save us about $175 per non testing year. The cost to complete the work was $362.

As many of you know, there was a recent problem with the organ. The initial concern was it might be the large electric motor, but upon further examination by Bonnie, T-Ross Brother's electrician, it was determined that a very old leather strap inside the inner workings of the blower had worn out. A craftsman from a leather shop in Mifflinburg made a new piece, which Bonnie and another helper from T-Ross installed. Thankfully the organ is working well again.
