

ANTON G. VENIER, M.D.

1914 - 1996

Word has just been received that Anton G. Venier, M.D., 82, longtime Sault Ste. Marie physician and surgeon and former Bay Port teacher passed away March 18.

While teaching high school chemistry and physics in Bay Port, he met and married Elizabeth Harrington in 1943. He practiced medicine in the Sault from 1948 until 1987, where he was also an original founder of the famous Soc Locals Cruises.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, Anton (Tony) Venier of the Sault and Harvey Venier of Louisville, KY; a daughter, Caroline Nease of Lexington, KY, two grandchildren and three sisters. A brother, Dr. Joseph Venier, preceded him in death.
