

Wyman, Julia V.

Julia Vera Wyman, 92, of Caseville and formerly of Saginaw and Palmetto, Florida, died Saturday, February 4, 2006, at home under the care of Heartland Hospice. Julia was born July 9, 1913 in Simsbury, Connecticut to the late John and Antonette (Salmonvich) Scepaniski. The family moved to Caseville in 1921. Later she moved to Detroit and met her husband Jack Don Wyman. They married on February 5, 1934 in Dearborn. Jack preceded her in death on May 30, 1980. In 1947, they moved to Saginaw. Julia worked at a pharmacy and then as a beautician until she retired. Upon retirement, she moved to Florida. In 1996, she returned to Caseville. Julia was a talented crafter and artist. She enjoyed basket weaving, sewing, quilting, and china and acrylic painting. She had donated many of her quilts to nursing homes. She was a member of the Pioneer Club and the Elks Club in Saginaw. She will be remembered as a loving mother, friend and neighbor. Julia is survived by her daughter, Julia Maxine Wyman, of Las Cruces, New Mexico; grandchildren, Wendy, Dean, Scott, Danielle and Jacqueline; nine great-grandchildren; and brothers, Tony and Frank Scepaniski, of Caseville. She was preceded in death by her husband, Jack, son, Don, grandson, Wesley Gushaw, and sisters, Ann Kincel, Mae Dove, and Phyllis Lillian Cormendy. A memorial service will be at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, February 7, 2006, at the Champagne Funeral Chapel of Caseville with Chaplin Karen Bouverette, of Heartland Hospice, officiating. Burial will be at Roselawn Memorial Garden in Saginaw. Visitation will be from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Tuesday at the funeral home. Memorials may be made to Heartland Hospice.
