

One More Time

Oh how I love to see your face in the light
Of the morning sun rising in the East
And, I remember how I dreamed of you again last night
One more time

Seems like only yesterday that you were lying there
Always to be by my side
Now I must try to get you out of my mind
One more time
One more time

One more time, I'll give you
Another day without you
It all seems more than I can stand

One more time, I love you
One more time, I need you
One more time,
And it's the end,
Again

It may seem funny underneath the light of day
When I press my crying cheek against the glass
But, God it feels so lonely with no one to talk to
But yourself
One more time

Sometimes it seem so hard to face the sun
After another sleepless night
But after a day or two
They all roll into one
One more time

One more time, I'll give you
Another day without you
It all seems more than I can stand

One more time, I love you
One more time, I need you
One more time,
And it's the end,
Again
