November 24, 2015

Regarding: CCSF Accreditation Trial

Dear Honorable Judge Karnow,

It has been one year to the day since I sent you my detailed letter dated November 24, 2014 requesting your assistance regarding my experience as a paramedic student at City College of San Francisco. My case has still not been resolved to my satisfaction. The probationary period of one year which you allocated for City College of San Francisco to meet the appropriate guidelines structured by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC) is set to expire in January 2016. Attached to this letter are the correspondents which I have sent since my November 24, 2014 letter to you. What I am requesting from City College of San Francisco is reimbursement of all tuition, school loan and additional fees spent on my internship and additional classes which were part of the curriculum. I am also asking that the paramedic instructor be removed from teaching and removed from City College of San Francisco's faculty.

Regards, Paul Macchia
