

Hello! Thanks for your interest in our This Grateful Heart merchandise!

As you may know, I'm healing from injuries sustained in a wreck earlier this year. Early on, Jesus told me He's carrying me. I was immediately grateful and relaxed, even in ICU, knowing that I was in good hands and would heal completely. My husband and I continue to heal.

Through Jesus Christ's outpouring of love, and my gratitude, bloomed This Grateful Heart and this design. In an effort to pay our medical and living expenses in a timely manner, We're making this design available with T-shirts, hoodies, & bags. Order yours today. Great gifts!
