

DeGrow, Delores

Delores June (Gotthardt) DeGrow, 75, of North Branch, died May 18, 2003, at McLaren Regional Hospital. Delores was born on June 13, 1927 in Birmingham, Mich. She was the daughter of Carl and Florence (Error) Vollmer. Delores graduated from Pigeon High School in 1944. She lived in Pigeon from 1933 to 1960. Delores married Maynard DeGrow on Dec. 10, 1960 in St. John's Lutheran Church in Berne, and then moved to North Branch. The vast majority of her life was spent as a loving homemaker. She was a member of the North Branch First United Methodist Church, where she held many offices. Delores held office of secretary and treasurer in Port Huron District United Methodist Women. She presently was the treasurer of the North Branch United Methodist Women Unit. Delores was a member of the North Branch Historical Society, the North Branch Gardening Club, and the Diversified Dozen Investment Club. Delores will be sadly missed by her husband, children and grandchildren. She is survived by her husband, Maynard; sons, Thomas DeGrow and his wife, Linda, of Midland, and William DeGrow and his wife, Mary, of Okemos; grandsons, Patrick Thompson and his wife, Carol, of Lansing, Kristopher DeGrow and his wife, Traci, of Midland and Seth DeGrow, of Midland; two great-grandsons; and one great-granddaughter. The funeral will be at 11 a.m. on Wednesday, May 21, 2003, at the North Branch United Methodist Church with the Rev. Wayne Ferrigan officiating. Burial will be in Grandlawn Cemetery in Pigeon. The family will be present at the Blackburn Chapel-Martin Funeral Home, 4216 Huron St., in North Branch on Tuesday for visitation from 5 to 8 p.m. Memorials may be made to the North Branch United Methodist Church Building Fund.
