

Heinrich, Victor

Victor Heinrich, 93, of Caseville went to be with his Lord on Tuesday afternoon, May 30, 2000, at Tendercare in Cass City. He was born on March 23, 1907, in Detroit to the late Ernst and Louisa (Doeter) Heinrich. On May 12, 1932, he married Beatrice L. Hanna in Detroit. She preceded in death Sept. 1, 1990. Victor worked for Detroit Edison for over 41 years, retiring in 1968 when he moved to Grindstone City. He then moved to Caseville in 1996. He was an avid sailor and a member of the Edison Boat Club for many years. When he retired he gave up sailing for golf. Victor was a charter member of the Port Austin Men's Senior Golf League and a member of the American Legion of Port Austin. He was a lifelong member of the Faith Lutheran Church in Detroit, and also attended the United Protestant Church in Port Austin while living in Grindstone. He was a member of the Caseville United Methodist Church. Victor is survived by his daughter, Nancy Begg and her husband, Donald, of Caseville; his son, Paul Heinrich and his wife, Takeko, of Grindstone City; six grandchildren, Gail, Sandra, Bruce, Robert, Paul and Cory; six great-grandchildren, Stewart, Jacqueline, Cameron, Christopher, Jason and Jeremy. He was preceded in death by a brother, Alfred Heinrich; and a sister, Florence Greenfelder. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Friday, June 2, 2000, at Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville. The Rev. Michael Quayle and the Rev. Robert Garrett will officiate with burial in Caseville Township Cemetery. Visitation will be 2 to 9 p.m. today and after 10 a.m. Friday at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the family.
