JUDGE

Charles White born in Quebec, Canada displayed a very early interest in art by drawing wildlife in pencil and ink at age six. Graduated Brigham Young University, his over 50 years of painting experience are evident in technique to create luminous multi-layered work that invites the viewer into a world of tranquil beauty and timeless elegance. White is featured as one of America's favorite artists in national art magazine articles. His images have been licensed by dozens of national companies. Charles White conducts lectures and workshops and shares his experience and technique through instructional video and classes. Today he manages to create 30-40 paintings a year for his expanding number of collectors.
