Biography

William Sid Holodnick, age 74 of Port Hope, passed away Tuesday, April 18, 2023 at McLaren Port Huron Hospital. He was born on May 8, 1948, in Lexington, to the late John and Leona (Champagne) Holodnick. Sid and Nancy Reibling were united in marriage on March 24, 1972 in Aldingen, Germany. Sid received his Masters Degree from Ferris State University and worked in education his whole career. He was a teacher for many years, and ended his career as the technology Director for Muskegon Heights Public Schools. Sid deeply loved Port Hope and its people. He left a piece of himself in many projects around the community. He loved woodworking and building restoration. He was a huge member of the Port Hope Area Historical Society, which just recently finished the Port Hope Depot and was currently working on the Brinker Lumber Yard. He enjoyed playing and singing music. Including participating in the All For Hymn choral group. He also enjoyed doing genealogy research and being with family and friends.
