Judge's Choice

Judge Kimberley Harvey picked some favorites from each division--enjoy!

1960s/'70s DIVISION

AKASHA (SM) ~ Arabian filly ~ CM by Julie Froelich and Nancy Strowger in 1979

"This filly oozes breed type and personality, and is far ahead of her time."

STARSHIP PHOENIX (AC) ~ ASB mare ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1979

"Paint work definitely at the front of how hobby custom paint jobs evolved. So sorry she kept being 'the bridesmaid' under my other two repeating picks, as on a different day it might have been a different lineup. Simply an exquisite chestnut in tone and shading."

1980s DIVISION

TWILIGHT MERES (AI) ~ Welara stallion ~ CM by unknown in 1980s

"Gorgeous custom work, wish we knew who created him. So soft and ethereal with great expression."

BRIGANTE (AC) ~ Shire stallion ~ CM by Michelle Belisle in 1988

"What a stunning dapple black (or very dark seal bay). He makes me swoon."

SO SHADY DAISY (AC) ~ Shetland mare ~ CM by Sue Rowe in 1984

"The perfect Shetland Pony, most likely to teach your child to cry and either give up horses entirely, or get back up and get back on the pony as a blueprint for the rest of their life."

PERSONAL EFFECTS (LD) ~ ASB mare ~ CM by Chris Flint in 1988

"So refreshing to see a true pleasure ASB mare, and I love how her head/neck was executed by the artist. Soft and feminine, and not something you see much even today in the model showinging."

1990s DIVISION

RAFFLES (CV) ~ Arabian stallion ~ CM by Laura Behning in 1992

"OMG, the pervasive image of an ethereal grey Arabian stallion. I really think he may have been Laura's finest work over the years. Not extreme, mold flaws cleaned up...He could come hang out on my shelf any day."

TECH NOIR (CV) ~ NSH stallion ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1992

"Would love to see this piece in person. I feel his photos really don't do him justice at all. That he started as a PAS and ended where he did makes him one of my favorite pieces Julie ever completed."

KIRIN (CV) ~ Arabian mare ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1990

"Another great piece by Julie. Just love the lines and curves of her as a piece of art."

PR ELDORADO SPANISH ROSE (JV) ~ Andalusian stallion ~ CM by Margaret Hallam in 1996

"I have a weird love of Legionario III despite all his sculpting flaws. This guy is just gorgeous."

TECH NOIR II (AI) ~ Arabian stallion ~ CM by unknown in the 1990s

"So very Arabian."

GATEADO MANCHO (AC) ~ Criollo gelding ~ CM by Julianne Garstka in 1996

"This guy just feels so real."

TS DRAGON KNIGHT (MP) ~ Pinzgauer-Noriker stallion ~ CM by Marie Phillips in 1993

"This guy (and his buddy, TS Dragon Warrior) are lovely and well-crafted to breed type."

WILD ART (KO) ~ Hackney Pony mare ~ CM by Shelly Poirier in 1991

"Perfect thing to do with a Kelso, and well executed. Very elegant piece."

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they said!

AKASHA

Arabian filly ~ CM by Julie Froelich & Nancy Strowger in 1979

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship, and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig writes, "Oh gosh, I am so thrilled that Akasha did so well! She truly is such a little jewel! Between Julie Froelich and Nancy Strowger, this little foal is made of pure magic! And she's ten times more amazing in person with charisma to spare! Thank you so much to the judge! I'm so tickled!"

ATTN EVILDOERS

Thoroughbred stallion ~ CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color and Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "When Liz Bouras parted with some of her epic collection of Strowgers in 2012, I was so grateful to acquire this alert guy!"

"Nancy Strowger had been into the 1972 Japanese anime series 'Science Ninja Team Gatchaman.' A 1994 update of its theme song features an English-language rap prefaced with the line 'Attention evil-doers,' and that seemed like a natural fit for him. (That's one letter too long for the real Thoroughbred name limit of 18 characters/spaces, so the first word got abbreviated.)

"Here's a look at him right after bringing me a mondo thrill in 2017, being voted the champion of the 1960s-'70s division at Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig's A Good Vintage IV in Kentucky! He's pictured with his lovely award. That was the ecstatic ending of what had been a nerve-wracking journey: I'd flown nearly 15 hours to Lexington from Tokyo with a hand-carried satchel of 14 vintage customs--mostly Classic size, and all survived the trip...but still, not recommended for their safety and your sanity!

"From there, he and that li'l globetrotting group went into storage in Michigan for two years to await Corky and I moving back to the U.S. Now that we're home, it's such a relief to all be back under the same roof!"

DANE TYLER BENNINGTON

Morgan stallion ~ CM by Laura Hornick Behning in the late 1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Lois Bennington most recently shared her thoughts on this great in our Spring 2024 issue. You'll find it in our free online archive at <http://www.vcmec.org>!

BRIGANTE

Shire stallion ~ CM by Michelle Belisle in 1988

1980s Overall Champion Breed and Workmanship, and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "Gotta admit, I got a little weepy when I learned Brigante did so well this time! Especially since this is a special anniversary year for him and me.

"Back in 1990, remembering my favorite teacher in high school, Mr. Joe Brigante ('Bri-GAHN-tee'), on the 10th anniversary of his abruptly passing away, it struck me that it could be something of a tribute if an outstanding model showhorse carried his name.

"At the time, entries were coming in for a photo show I was judging--and just like that, there was The Horse: a stunning Shire called Ebony Rock, astonishingly remade from a Breyer Clydesdale Mare by Michelle Belisle! His owner was thankfully willing to part with him--and with his new moniker, Brigante went on to become one of my winningest model showhorses. It's so gratifying that he's still a contender nowadays in vintage custom shows!

"Every time I see his name, I remember Mr. Brigante, who passed away at age 34. It's sobering that his namesake has now been a dear member of my herd for 35 years."

RYO ASUKA

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1989

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Here's a classic case of putting the name before the horse... I've always been crazy for *Tropic, a heartstopper of a Hagen-Renaker Nataf repainted chestnut by Nancy Strowger. For a good long time I wanted sooo sooo much to someday have something similar and name it Ryo Asuka, after a character in my favorite manga, Go Nagai's 'Devil-man.'

"Was that ever going to happen? As the years passed, the odds got more and more staggering. Repainted Natafs never turned up for sale. I managed to get an OF matte Nataf, but that shaded white fellow was so beautiful, I didn't want to mess him up with a woefully amateur paint job trying to do it myself.

"Then Julie Froelich created an Adonis of a chestnut Arabian named Aladdin Sane, from a Breyer Proud Arabian Stallion body and a head cast from a Hagen-Renaker large Amir. He was one of the stars in her 1990 Riddermark production auction. I fell for him hard, and was fortunate enough to land him!

"So he got the name, and has brought me a lot of thrills ever since, even winning the humongo Grand Champion RR Halter rosette at one of Cheryl Monroe's wonderful Great Lakes Live shows in the '90s. I'm so happy that he's doing well in VCMEC, too!"

TWILIGHT MERES

Welara Pony stallion ~ CM by an unknown artist in the 1980s

1980s Overall Champion Color

Amanda Ingram writes, "How exciting to hear that Twilight Meres won a championship! This will be his first ever!

"I purchased him from a collector who could not remember who painted him. He is definitely special and it's disappointing that the artist cannot take credit for such beautiful work. The only thing I know about him is that he was painted in the 1980s, unshown, and original name was Sharraz."

MON'NAFA RANI

Arabian mare ~ CM by Sarah Minkiewicz in the late 1980s

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Cheryl Ridge has shared a lot of great details about this legendary lady in a veritable parade of Victory Laps, most recently in the Autumn 2023 issue. You'll find it in our free online archive of issues at <http://www.vcmec.org>!

JUMANJI

Mule colt ~ CM by Diane Capwell in 1999

1990s Overall Champion Breed

Corky Visminas writes, "As horse-crazy as I was as a kid, I never had the opportunity to spend much time around equines, and my knowledge of them, aside from books, was limited to the few contacts with them I had over the years.

"As such, I never realized that mules and donkeys came in colors other than dark bay, gray, and sorta-dirty-brown until I was an adult--I'd literally never seen a colorful mule before, and finding out they're actually available in a wide variety of colors was literally an eye-opener! They rapidly became one of my favorite 'flavors,' so to speak, so you can probably imagine the speed with which I jumped when Jumanji came up for sale some years ago!

"This sassy li'l guy's vivid color, courtesy of Diane Capwell, won't let judges ignore him -- and I'm so tickled that he's done so well in VCMEC!"

GATEADO MANCHO

Criollo gelding ~ CM by Juliane Garstka in 1996

1990s Overall Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "After admiring this super-realistic-looking guy for a few years when Cristine Holt was showing him in Betty Hook's TOPSA (Totally Online Photo Showing Association) club, I was mighty glad to be in time to become his new caretaker when Cristine decided to part with him in 2014!

"At that point I had a couple of Garstka remakes that were sold to me by other hobbyists as vintage customs, but that Juliane had later told me were done within the decade. So when Juliane verified that Gateado Mancho was indeed a vintage custom, having been created in 1996, I was an extra-happy gal!

"It's a little tough to see in his photo, but Gateado Mancho has a bit of hairing in each ear and under his jaw. I really love that touch that Juliane gives her horses!

"Mancho' is a longtime shelf-buddy with another vintage repainted/haired Breyer App Performance Horse, sabino Taco Bellzebub, by Tom Bainbridge. I don't usually keep horses of the same mold together, but Mancho and Taco somehow ended up that way, and seeing that pair of friendly faces together always makes me smile.

"Thanks so much for letting him enjoy a turn in the spotlight!"

MARS FLASH

Paint stallion ~ CM by Carol Williams in 1990

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Doin' his daddy Naoto Nisei proud! It was years ago but I can still feel the excitement of being in time to get this CM Breyer Adios on one of Carol Williams' sales lists! He was still in progress, so Carol let me choose his color and pattern.

"Carol wrote me with an update, mentioning that she'd first painted him all in Mars Violet to make sure the remaking was smooth. The 'Mars' part stuck in mind, and I wound up naming him after the sword weapon of an anime robot hero.

"Carol also said she'd decided to try something different, replacing his head with a ceramic head she'd cast from her sculpture...a sculpture that would go on to become her landmark RRQH1 resin! (Mars Flash is one of two remakes she did this with; the other was a Stud Spider CM as a blue roan overo named Blue Jack Rio. Although I let Blue Jack's current owner know his origin and the fragility that goes with it, she still claims he's a customized Stone ISH. Ah well, just don't knock him over!)

"I was out of the hobby for a decade after moving to Japan in 2000, and when I got back in, dun and buckskin overo model horses seemed to keep finding their way to me. It was as though Mars Flash had been 'busy' in the meantime, getting a next generation ready to greet me! Some of them would become outstanding showhorses for me, like Banzai Tulip, Jetter Mars, and The Mars Day-break. I felt almost like Rip Van Winkle, waking up to find that Naoto Nisei's best son (Mars Flash was fittingly destined to be Naoto Nisei's best, since he doesn't much resemble his sire ;^)) was already carrying on as a fine sire."

WILD ART

Hackney Horse mare ~ CM by Shelly Poirier in 1991

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Kelly O'Connor writes, "Wild Art's story is a bit of a trip through hobby history! I confess I'd forgotten I owned her, after mostly being out of the hobby for a while; I went looking through boxes in the basement for my vintage lovelies when I learned about VCMEC and was surprised and delighted to unwrap her!

"I am guessing I bought her at one of our New England shows back in the '90s, when Shelly was participating in this part of the country. I do miss those days of frequently live showing! I was then happy to find that Wild Art was listed on Shelly's page at the Model Horse Gallery--grateful to all who have kept public records on artists and their creations!

"My fondness for the Maureen Love classic TBs is well established and this lovely remake preserves that grace and elegance in a more dramatic form."

ASUKA RYO

Arabian stallion ~ CM by Tom Bainbridge in 1991

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "There was a great Strowger named *Tropic...heh, that's not the start of a limerick, just the indirect start of this horse!

"Back in the fuzzy reaches of the '80s becoming the '90s, Tom Bainbridge and I were chatting about favorite models, and I mused that one horse that must be unimaginably awesome to own must be *Tropic, a towering Hagen-Renaker Nataf (if you've never seen one in person, they're about 14 inches tall at the eartips!) that Nancy Strowger repainted a glowing chestnut. I had an OF matte H-R Nataf, but figured that was as close as I'd ever be able to come.

"Go-getter Tom was just getting established as an artist, and some time later he called me with a mind-blowing offer: He had just completed an amazing repaint and would trade it to me for my OF Nataf, if I would get the horse into the public eye by campaigning it everywhere I could, live and photo.

"That repaint was a glorious chestnut Nataf!

"Asuka Ryo (since the name Ryo Asuka had ironically already gone to a different horse, as detailed a couple pages ago!) became one of my winningest-ever horses, and always drew a crowd at live shows. I'm so happy that he's doing well nowadays too in VCMEC... and while you're reading, let me mention again 'cause it's part of the bargain, Asuka Ryo was created by Tom Bainbridge. ;^) (Heartfelt thanks again for this treasure, Tom!)

"P.S. Tom would paint another H-R Nataf not long after, a bay for Allie Davidson. I sometimes wonder if it began life as the matte OF Nataf I traded for Asuka Ryo. But it's great to no longer wonder where that bay is these days: Now named Flirtacious, he recently began competing for new owner Rachel Bergman in the VCMEC World Championships series!"

TECH NOIR

National Show Horse stallion ~ CM by Julie Froelich in 1992

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Corky Visminas writes, "I love 'tuxedo' cats, and I love horses of that color too! There's just something about the combination of a black hide with white feet all the way around that I find really pleasing and elegant.

"Tech Noir, another gorgeous custom by Julie Froelich, is a prime example, and his smooth, easy action and personable attitude makes him a real favorite of mine! Plus, that FACE-!"

Ardith Carlton adds, "Tech Noir was one of the most hotly sought horses in Julie Froelich's 1992 production auction. Like Ryo Asuka, he's a Proud Arabian Stallion body with a customized cast H-R large Amir head. Corky and I were crazy for him and tried our best, but Janice Brusky won him.

"Janice, who had some fantastic Froelichs including the big chestnut tovero Paint mare Ghost Dance (pretty sure she was a THHN cover model in a driving performance photo), did not keep Tech Noir for long. I was stunned to see her list him for sale, and was so relieved to be in time to get him!

"She told me that she'd asked Julie to repaint and hair him to be chestnut. Julie had demurred, so Janice decided to sell him. Corky and I were just ecstatic to be able to welcome him! (For those who might not know, Janice Brusky passed away in 2008. It's hard to help wondering what became of Ghost Dance.)"

SURPRISE ENDING! After nine years, this is unfortunately the last issue of the VCMEC Model Horse Re-View we're able to produce using Lucidpress/Marc. With that online program's annual renewal fee due the same month as the Museum's insurance and property taxes, and our Lucidpress/Marc account locked into the annual renewal rather than the monthly option they advertise, we unfortunately just are not able to pay for it all right now.

This has been a tremendously difficult decision to make, and we hope to find another way to produce issues soon! In the meantime, regular text show results for the March 2025 leg will be emailed to entrants.

We WILL find a way to see you again soon!
