

Mary Yax, 68, died October 16 at the Huron Memorial Hospital, Bad Axe, after a long illness.

Mary Stirret and James Nicholas Yax were married June 7, 1922 at the St. Felix Catholic Church in Hewelton. Mr. Yax died October 25, 1973. Mrs. Yax was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stirret.

She is survived by seven daughters, Mrs. Earl (Agnes) Klemmer, Bad Axe, Mrs. Marguerite Herriman, Kinde, Mrs. Francis (Lucy) Ruth, Mrs. David (Annabel) Langley, both of Caseville, Mrs. Francis (Gladys) Reilly, Roseville, Mrs. Alex (Jean) McGeachy, Dearborn Heights, Mrs. Edward (Sandra) Klee, Taylor; five sons, James, Caro, Gerald, Flint, Lawrence, Taylor, Richard, Garden City, Duane, Pontiac; 60 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren; one brother, Alex Stirret, Bad Axe; three sisters, Mrs. Mabel Soper, Bad Axe, Mrs. Violet Musselman, Bad Axe, Mrs. Velma Stirret, Kinde.

Funeral services will be at 11 a.m. Saturday from the St. Felix Catholic Church in Hewelton. Father Michael Wolf will officiate and interment will be in the church cemetery.

Rosary will be recited by Father Wolf at 8 p.m. Friday night at the Gage Chapel of the MacAlpine funeral home, Kinde.

Friends may call after 7 p.m. Thursday night.