

MAPPLETON : The gentle slope of the degraded, protected cliff has been grassed to help retain the soil on the slope and prevent soil wash and other sub-aerial downslope processes. In places where a landslip has occurred plastic mesh has been inserted in the soil to retain it and help the grass re-establish.

