A portrait of The Rev. Dr. Barbara Headley, a woman with short blonde hair, wearing glasses and a red top, smiling. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light.

The Rev. Dr. Barbara Headley was called to be the Senior Pastor of Zion Community Baptist Church in August of 2015. Dr. Headley has a long and distinguished ministry. She served for 17 years as the first African American and the first female Deputy Chaplain of the Connecticut State Senate and as the former Senior Pastor of Faith Congregational Church in Hartford, CT, the third oldest African American congregational church in the U.S. She was the founder Impart Leadership Ministries in Middletown CT and a founding partner and certified trainer with The John Maxwell Leadership Team, a national and international team of leadership trainers and coaches. She has worked as a leadership consultant, trainer, speaker and coach for community and faith-based organizations. She is also an adjunct professor of leadership in ministry at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary, MA.

Rev. Headley served seven years as associate minister at Trinity Baptist Church, New York, where she was the founder and Dean of the Trinity Bible Institute. She served as Assistant Dean and Director of Degree Programs at Hartford Seminary, where she was also an adjunct professor and on the Board of Trustees. She was the host and teacher of the radio broadcast, "Sounds of Faith" in Hartford CT. She was also the founder and president of "Faith Community Initiatives", a church based nonprofit organization in Hartford, which was established to improve the quality of life of the residents of the North end of the city of Hartford, CT.

She has lectured and preached at Yale Divinity School, Harvard Divinity School, Drew Theological Seminary, New York Theological Seminary, Connecticut College, St. Joseph's University, Wesleyan University and Andover Theological School.

Dr. Headley is a recipient several ministerial and community awards including the Union Seminary Merit Award, the Benjamin E. Mays Fellowship for Ministry Award, the Greater Hartford Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance Award for Pastoral Excellence, the Trinity College Master Carpenter Certificate of Merit award for community service, the Hartford Urban League's Community Service a citation and recognition by the Connecticut General Assembly. She was appointed in 2005 by then Governor Jodi Rell to the Citizens Council of the Connecticut State Office of Ethics.

Dr. Headley was born in Brooklyn, New York. She received her Bachelor of Science degree in physical therapy from Ithaca College, her Master of Divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary in New York City, and her Doctor of Ministry degree with distinction from Hartford Seminary. She has a Graduate Certificate in Non-Profit Management from Bay Path University and is a graduate fellow of Leadership Greater Hartford leadership program. She has also studied at The New York School of the Bible, New York Theological Seminary, The Jerusalem Center of Biblical Studies in Israel and at the University of Cape Town in the Republic of South Africa. Pastor Headley is an ordained American Baptist minister.
