

DOCUMENT RETENTION AND DESTRUCTION POLICY

I. Purpose

This Document Retention and Destruction Policy (Policy) provides for the systematic review, retention and destruction of documents received or created by the International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP) in connection with the transaction of the International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP)

This Policy covers all records and documents, regardless of physical form (including electronic documents), contains guidelines for how long certain documents should be kept and how records should be destroyed.

The Policy is designed to ensure compliance with federal and state laws and regulations, to eliminate accidental or innocent destruction of records and to facilitate [abbreviated name]'s operations by promoting efficiency and freeing up valuable storage space.

II. Document Retention

the International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP) follows the document retention procedures outlined below. Documents that are not listed, but are substantially similar to those listed in the schedule will be retained for the appropriate length of time.

Therefore, any electronic files, including records of donations made online, that fall into one of the document types on the above schedule will be maintained for the appropriate amount of time. If a user has sufficient reason to keep an email message, the message should be printed in hard copy and kept in the appropriate file or moved to an "archive" computer file folder. Backup and recovery methods will be tested on a regular basis.

V. Emergency Planning

The International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP) Organization's records will be stored in a safe, secure and accessible manner. Documents and financial files that are essential to keeping the Organization operating in an emergency will be duplicated or backed up at least every week and maintained off site.

VI. Document Destruction

The International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP) Organization's Secretary & Treasure is responsible for the ongoing process of identifying its records, which have met the required retention period and overseeing their destruction. Destruction of financial and personnel-related documents will be accomplished by shredding.

Document destruction will be suspended immediately, upon any indication of an official investigation or when a lawsuit is filed or appears imminent. Destruction will be reinstated upon conclusion of the investigation.

VII. Compliance

Failure on the part of the International Association of Safety, Health & Environmental Professionals (IASHEP) employees or contract staff to follow this policy can result in possible civil and criminal sanctions against the Organization and its employees or contract staff and possible disciplinary action against responsible individuals. The Executive Director / CEO and the IASHEP Secretary / Treasurer will periodically review these procedures with legal counsel or the organization's certified public accountant to ensure that they are in compliance with new or revised regulations.
