

3 things to do

Posted Mar 7, 2017 at 12:01 AM

1 HSVCA - Irish Tenors and Celtic Ladies: Woodlands Auditorium - 1101 DeSoto Blvd. Wednesday and Friday - 7:30 p.m. (Thursday is sold out). The Hot Springs Village Concerts Association presents the Irish Tenors and Celtic Ladies. They bring together ladies with angelic voices and the Emerald Isle's finest tenors. This production hails all the way from Ireland and the unique blend of timeless, traditional folk ballads with classical and adult contemporary songs appeals to all ages. Their Irish charm, exceptional harmonies and skillfully choreographed dancing enchants all audiences. This concert will prove to be one of the highlights of the year. General admission tickets are $30 each.

2 Beauty and the Bride, 2017 Hot Springs Bridal Expo: Sunday, 1-4 p.m., in the Hamp Williams Building, 500 Ouachita Ave., Hot Springs. Admission: $10 per person at the door. Sponsored by Garvan Woodland Gardens, Signature Events of Hot Springs, Arkansas Bride magazine, and Hamp Williams Building. Join vendors from around the state, all in one location, to plan your perfect dream wedding. A wedding package will be awarded to one lucky bride the day of the event. Must be present to win.

3 Arkansas high school basketball finals:
Event takes place Thursday through Saturday at Bank of the Ozarks Arena. Tickets $8 per day (providing you do not leave the premises) allow you to see as many games as you like that day. Box office opens at noon Thursday and Friday, 8 a.m. Saturday. Visit www.ahsaa.org.
