

I Still Remember

The first time I saw you, I fell in love.
The second time, I finally said hello.
Third time's a charm.
You took me by the arm,
And down life's highway, we did go.

I still remember falling in love.
I never will forget.
I still remember falling in love
The first time our eyes met.
I still remember...

Sometimes, you saw me at my best.
Other times, you saw me at my worst.
Life's not easy,
But you believed in me.
Dreams you trust are hard to burst.

I still remember falling in love.
I never will forget.
I still remember falling in love
The first time our eyes met.
I still remember...

As time passes by, you can drift apart.
Neither one to blame.
A word here; a look there.
But, fading love is like a smoldering flame

And, I still remembered falling in love.
I never could forget.
I still remember falling in love
The first time our eyes met.
I still remember...

I still remember falling in love.
It happens every day.
I still remember falling in love
Every time you say
"I remember"

We still remember falling in love.
We never will forget.
We still remember falling in love
The first time our eyes met.
I still remember...
You still remember..
We still remember...
Always remember...
