

El Santuario de los Pobladores — Dedicated to the Mysteries of the Rosary

Our promise and dedication towards completing the Santuario in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe and Mysteries of the Rosary perseveres and each day brings us closer to its completion. Some memorial plaque panels have been placed at the Santuario entrance temporarily and will be relocated to the courtyard. Your continued patience & cooperation is greatly appreciated as we work with volunteers in this phase of our project. St. Augustine & Holy Family statues are now in place at the Santuario. The process for remaining (5) mission statues will begin as entire donations are complete for each figure. We encourage our volunteers to actively seek contributions for Ortiz, San Rafael, Las Mesitas, San Miguel, and San Antonio. In addition, statues of Our Lady Of Guadalupe and St. Juan Diego will be placed at the entrance & walkways leading visitors to various areas of interest.

Placement of new trees will also be available to contributors interested in dedicating a tree in memory of a family member similar to what now exists on Veterans Boulevard entering the Village of Conejos. We want to acknowledge the generous contributions we have received to keep the project moving along - monetary contributions, volunteer time and efforts of Brian Knight & Al Abeyta Jr. for their craftsmanship & display of memorial plaques, Mike Spearman, Albert Vialpando & other volunteers. Your continued support and prayers are greatly appreciated. Tours are available. Please call the church in advance, if possible. Thank You!

MASS THEME

Theme: Perseverance in Trials

We are told that day by day life can be a joyous experience. The commercials on television assure you that it will be if you buy what they try to sell you. This is also the message of not a few psychologists who assert that the learning process in school, home, life, job and religion/faith should all be one joyous experience! This is fine in theory but what happens if circumstances prevent our lives from being joyous all the time? What if gradually a school becomes an anti-intellectual fun house? In this respect, teachers who do not dare to challenge their students are not their friends. As for the home, here too there are unpleasant chores to be done. And there are parents who spoil their children-doing them a great disservice for their later life. Even if we love our work, there is no job that does not entail unpleasant aspects as well. And as far as religion is concerned, worship services should be a mutual inspiration, and a Christian life of mutual love is a splendid thing; however, we cannot have that good warm feeling all the time, neither is the church a theater where we go to enjoy "an exciting show!" Loyalty requires sacrifice. Today's Liturgy deals precisely with those times when life seems to be anything but a joyous experience, when Christians have to undergo dis-appointment, rejection, trials; and it sets forth the reserves that they can call upon to help them persevere. Can everything we mentioned above continue to be a joyous experience in such circumstances?

BIBLICAL COMMENTARY

To a certain extent, yes, if we have learned the joy of sharing and of service, based on a firm faith in Someone who cares. Paul and Barnabas of the First Reading are encouraging examples for us.

FIRST READING Acts 13:14, 43-52

[Salvation in Jesus]

Paul and Barnabas had the joyful experience of making many converts, but they also had to face the pain of rejection. Though persecuted, they could not but be "filled with joy and the Holy Spirit." Life is never a continuous success story. When things do not go your way, think of Paul and Barnabas and their disciples, and with great faith make the Responsorial Psalm your prayer to God: "We are his people: the sheep of his flock." God cares!

SECOND READING Rv 7:9, 14b-17

[The Blood of the Lamb]

In veiled language, the sacred writer encourages his fellow Christians who are in "the time of great distress." The phrase "white in the blood of the Lamb" signifies being cleansed from sin through Jesus' meritorious death on the cross. God's word to us is that a Christian life does not shield us from disappointments and even suffering. Be conscious of God who will eventually wipe every tear also from your eyes.

 May 18, 2025: Senior Mass @ 11 AM
 May 21, 2025: Confirmation Mass @ 5:30 PM

Traditionally, the parish offers a small gift to all the mothers who attend Mass on Mother's Day. This year our gifts were late on arriving.

We apologize.

Dear Heavenly Father,

On this Mother's Day, we lift up mothers in prayer. Grant them strength, patience, and boundless love. May Your grace guide them in their sacred journey of motherhood.

-Amen

We want to extend our heartfelt gratitude to each and every one of you who give your time, energy and love to serve our church community. Whether you're greeting at the doors, teaching our children, preparing our meal, or lending a hand behind the scenes, your efforts do not go unnoticed. Your willingness to serve reflects the love of Christ and helps make our church a place of warmth, connection, and spiritual growth. Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus—you are truly a blessing to us all.
