

THE DREAM OF CONFUSING ISSUES AND LOUD TALKING

I got out of Bed a little before 3 am, having just awakened from a disturbing dream. Here is what the dream was about:

There were people all around me ARGUING AND TALKING VERY LOUD. They went on for what seemed like many days until it just became a huge fight leading to much destruction where I saw them hurting each other physically and killing each other. They were just going on and on until it was deafening and I could not even stand to be in the same place with them. But where was I to go to get out of the sound of their angry voices? I just wanted to go hide somewhere it was peaceful and quite. I listened to them and the thought came to me THEY ARE ALL WRONG and they will DESTROY EACH OTHER. I could clearly see them talking and I heard the word:

ISSUES

They will destroy themselves over ISSUES.

I have posted this Word in obedience to my Lord. Lord help your people to come up under you and enter into the Secret Place of the Most High God. Help them in this hour of great shaking.
