Location: TBD

Instructor: Jeff Torres, Interpreter Training Group

Date: TBD

Method of Delivery: Non- Instructor Led

Course Description:

This non-language specific, non-instructor led, three (3) CA CIMCE/CEU credit hour course will familiarize today's Interpreter with many of the common terms and meanings associated with current legal, criminal and medicinal terminology used in conjunction with Marijuana in society and in courtroom proceedings. Learn terminology, phrases and the corresponding meanings used in today's society such as "Blunt", "420", "Honey", "5X", "Diesel", and many more terms and phrases brought into the courtroom environment on a daily basis. Through a combination of provided video resources, self-guided terminology, word matching, and a question and answer exam, the language professional can expect to gain a better understanding as to terminology and descriptions used in today's society.

Instructor:

As a full time law enforcement professional with over 25 years of law enforcement experience, supervision and training, Mr. Jeff Torres brings his many years of comprehensive experience as both an investigator and supervisor in many high-level felony investigations which include, Homicide, Robbery, Narcotics, Sexual Assault, Domestic Violence and Death Investigation to name a few. Mr. Torres' knowledge of criminal justice investigative processes and procedures brings to the language professional many years of industry specific terminology and procedure-based knowledge from both the "field" and justice system perspective. As part of Mr. Torres resume, he was assigned to supervise the daily law enforcement operations at a California Superior Court where he oversaw all aspects of courtroom and court facility security and law enforcement operations. His daily interaction with court proceedings, interpreters, court officers, court administration, court assigned deputies and the general public provided him a unique global perspective into the daily operations of the judicial system and those who work within.
