... the 75th MAWNY!

Jeff McBride ... of Las Vegas is a magic superstar. Known worldwide as The King of Cards and the Master of Masks, he has won the International Grand Prix of Magic 3 times, been Stage Magician of the Year, had countless network TV appearances, created the McBride Magic & Mystery School in Las Vegas, and been a headliner all over the planet. Jeff has even guest-starred on Star Trek, Deep Space Nine!

On Stage and Masters of Ceremonies

of Indianapolis will take your brain for a thrill ride. They are the finest mental entertainers in the business, and among the nation's most sought after corporate and college-circuit acts. Katalina is baffling as she is entertaining ... and Christian ... agrees she is. Enjoy the magical mysteries of the mind with the Painters!

Lucy Darling ...

of Alberta, Canada is known the world over for her wit, charm, and exceptionally good hair. Lucy's shows are a wonderful mix of charm and character, improvisational comedy, hilariously clever writing, and impossible magic. Miss Darling is an 8-time Award-Winning Entertainer featured in the Guinness Book of World Records (2014), Ripley's Believe it or Not (2015) and as star of the documentary Carisa Hendrix: Girl on Fire, which tells the true story of the struggle to create her 2016 Las Vegas magic show. In 2019 she was nominated for Stage Magician of the Year at the Magic Castle.

... of Niagara Falls, Ontario has entertained and amazed thousands worldwide since the 70s. On television or on stage in North America, Bahamas, Bermuda, Japan, or China, this dynamic and versatile performer always leaves the audience screaming for more. Ken won The Linking Ring Trick of the Year and has been published extensively. For over 30 years, Ken portrayed Merlin at the world-famous Henry VIII Feast at Niagara-on-the-Lake's Buttery.

Ken McCreedy ...

Darryl Rose

of London ... is a high-flier, having performed comfortably at 30,000 ft on Virgin Atlantic's inaugural flight, and down to earth – receiving a standing ovation at the London Palladium. He adapts his magic to the situation: close-up, stage, mind reading, product launches and trade shows. TV magician Darryl has performed across the world from Buckingham Palace to the Sultan's palace in Brunei with his magic, spoon bending and pick-pocketing. This London Magician has performed for royalty, rock stars, politicians and the public, and is one of a select few to earn the Inner Magic Circle with Gold Star. He won The Magic Circle Foundation Challenge Medal 3 consecutive times!
