Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Questions:

- 1) In Matthew 24 Jesus speaks specifically about His return. What are some signs that Jesus gives that will show He is coming?
- 2) In Matthew 24:32 Jesus uses a parable of a fig tree to share with the disciples how they will know about His return. What is the point behind this parable?
- 3) Today we not only talk about Christ's return, but we also partake in communion. What is the connection between this teaching and the sacrament of communion?

Memory Verse: Matthew 24:42 "Therefore be on alert, for you do not know which day your Lord is coming."

Weekly Challenge: Knowing that we are called to be on alert because we do not know when the Lord will return, examine your life this week and ask yourself the tough question: "If Jesus returned right now, how would He feel about what I am doing?"
