On January 23, 2016, the Rubans Rouges Dance Company held their 4th annual Awakenings & Beginnings Dance Festival at the Diavolo Space in downtown Los Angeles. Both the matinee and evening shows were completely sold out, and featured a combination of over forty professional and emerging artists. The philosophy behind the "awakenings" part of this festival is to allow established artists to grow in the dance world with new inspirations, while the "beginnings" part provides an opportunity for emerging choreographers to share their contributions to the art of dance. The company will soon be preparing for their 5th annual festival, which will be held in 2017!
