

FGS Resources

Whether you're an experienced genealogist or just beginning to research your family history, the Falmouth Genealogical Society (FGS) has programs and services to meet your needs.

Meetings

Monthly meeting presentations feature diverse topics by professional genealogists and our own members.

Meetings are held on one Saturday of each month from 10 am-noon at the Falmouth Public Library, 300 Main Street. Talks are also available by ZOOM. Meetings are free and open to the public.

Research Assistance

The Research Help Desk and Team Up offer individualized assistance. Visit the Help Desk on Tuesdays from 2-4 pm at the Falmouth Public Library. Schedule a Team Up session by contacting fgsresident@gmail.com.
