

Kathryn Louise Harrison

1924 - 1997

Kathryn Louise Harrison, age 72 of Caseville, passed away Wednesday, May 7 at St. Mary's Medical Center in Saginaw.

She was born December 13, 1924 in Detroit, daughter of the late Frederick and Annie May (Dixon) Johnson. She married Robert R. Harrison on May 15, 1953 in Royal Oak. She graduated from Southeastern High School in Detroit and from Michigan State University, where she received a Bachelor of Science degree. Mrs. Harrison was previously employed at General Motors. She resided in Berkley from 1953 to 1980 and then moved permanently to Caseville, after spending summer vacations in the area for many years.

Mrs. Harrison enjoyed participating in various bridge clubs around the Caseville area. Her friends and family remember her as being very meticulous and proficient when dealing with her various hobbies and activities, which included sewing, spinning, weaving and gardening.

Her survivors include her husband, Robert, of Caseville; two daughters, Kathryn (David) Woods of Adrian and Pamela (James) Carter of Caseville; six grandchildren, Robert and Kathryn Taylor and Michael, Shannon, Tracy and Shane Carter; six step-grandchildren and nine step-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by one sister, Elizabeth Klinkhamer.

Services will be Sunday, May 11 at 2 p.m. at the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home in Pigeon (A Golden Rule Funeral Home), with burial in the Caseville Township Cemetery. Officiating will be Rev. Gregg Mayberry, pastor of Caseville United Methodist Church. Friends may call at the funeral home on Friday from 7 to 9 p.m., Saturday from 3 to 9 p.m. or Sunday from 12 noon until the time of service at 2 p.m.

Memorials may be made to the family or the organization of the donor's choice.
