

JANE D. CLUNIS

1947 - 1995

Jane D. Clunis, 48 of Elkton, passed away Thursday, Dec. 14 at her home following a long fight with cancer.

She was born April 26, 1947 in Cass City, daughter of the late William and Pauline (Pohl) Wiasnbaugh.

On Oct. 12, 1968, she was united in marriage to Douglas J. Clunis at St. Peter Lutheran Church in Bach.

Mrs. Clunis has lived and farmed in Oliver Township since her marriage. She was employed by the Dairy Herd Improvement Association from 1980 until 1988, when she began driving bus for the Laker School system, where she was currently employed.

She was a member of St. Peter Lutheran Church, Bach, a very active leader for over 10 years of the Rebel Riders 4-H Club, coached the 4-H horse and pony pull for several years, member of the Indian Trails Riding Club, Huron County Horse and Pony Leaders Association, and Michigan Trail Riders Association.

Surviving are her husband, Douglas; her son, Doug; her daughter, Kristina, all of Elkton; one brother, Harlan (Carol) Wiasnbaugh of Bach, and a sister, Wilma (Walter) Gramak of Auburn. She was preceded in death by two brothers.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Bach, with Rev. Nathan Bickel, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Silverlawn Cemetery in Sebawing.

Champagne Funeral Chapel in Elkton handled funeral arrangements.

Memorials may be given to the Huron County Horse and Pony Leaders Association.
