A Message for March 2018, from our Parish Priest

Here we are in the final weeks of Lent that began a short month ago. We gathered together in church and asked God to help us make a Holy Lent, as our foreheads were marked with the sign of the cross from the ashes of last year's palms.

How has it been going for you? Have we taken the many opportunities that our Lord has given us to make this a Holy Lent? Have we consciously made greater efforts in prayer... in fasting... in giving alms... in self-denial and repentance? Have we been reading and meditating on God's Holy Word?

Have we been more active in works of mercy... in our church attendance... in intentionally inviting others to come and experience the love of our Lord Jesus Christ, through how we treat one another and our other neighbors?

If we haven't been fully experiencing, if we haven't been actively participating in the fullness of a Holy Lent, it's not too late. We can start today, right this moment, to begin again. Very soon Palm Sunday will arrive and we'll be part of the crowd that cries out "Crucify him!" But we can also, intentionally, share in the Passion of our Lord with the Communion of Saints, as members of Christ's mystical body, striving to align our minds, hearts, and souls with God's Holy Will.

We can use the time that we still have available this Lent to make it Holy. We can strive to love God above all things, with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength; and to love our neighbors as ourselves. Why... and is it even possible?

Yes. Because we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, we can draw near to the throne of grace with confidence, that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need.

There is still time to enter with joy upon the contemplation of those mighty acts, in which God has given us life and immortality, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

In Christ's love, and ministry,

Father Leon

The Episcopal Diocese of Central New York
The Rt. Rev. Dr. DeDe Duncan-Probe

Dear People of Central New York:

As Christians we have a responsibility to stand with those who feel most vulnerable, especially when those persons are our children and youth.

I invite you join me on Tuesday, March 20th at 8:00 p.m. for a Facebook Live conversation on gun violence issues (at facebook.com/bishopdede), and then to prayerfully consider joining with me on Saturday, March 24th to walk in peaceful protest of gun violence and support the young people of our country. There are marches planned in several cities of our diocese—and around the country—that day. As details are finalized, we will be posting meet-up arrangements for events in our region at cnyepiscopal.org/march-for-our-lives. I am also speaking to community leaders about a prayer vigil—and other ways to show our support to young people—and will keep you informed about these opportunities.

I support responsible gun ownership. When I was growing up, guns were part of my life. I hunted with my brothers, regularly shot skeet (well, to be honest regularly shot at skeet) and even mastered the tricky art of launching skeet with a hand-held trebuchet. “Responsible gun ownership” was not a term I knew because everyone I knew handled guns responsibly.

However, in recent years there has been a significant change in our national experience. It is clear that people disagree about the cause of the rise of mass shootings in America, but what is undeniable is that our children and youth feel unsafe at school. From Columbine to Sandy Hook to this most recent shooting in Parkland, Florida, our young people are afraid and their courage in standing up for safety in our society is both moral and admirable.

Furthermore, these issues of safety are present in our own towns and neighborhoods. Thursday in Central New York two schools went into a lockdown situation as a result of a perceived threat; at a third school police were called to an incident and a lockdown was considered. So while we need substantive ongoing conversation about gun violence in America, it must arise from our work and prayer.

In Matthew 19, Jesus commands his disciples, “Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them.” Children are sacred, beloved and cherished participants in building God’s kingdom and in this moment they are pointing the way. Regardless of political affiliation or opinion, I urge you to come and walk with me in support of our young people. I pray they will never feel that they walk alone.

May the redeeming love of Jesus light our way.

Faithfully,
The Rt. Rev. Dr. DeDe Duncan-Probe Bishop of Central New York

T-Shirts and Sweatshirts!

In preparation for the Memorial Day Parade, we are taking orders for t-shirts and sweatshirts. The shirts will have the descending dove graphic on the front, and the back will have our "Feeding Fulton's Hungry One Meal At A Time" logo. Shirts are available in red or navy with sizes up to 5x. T-shirts cost $10.00 for small to XL. There is an upcharge for larger sizes. Sweatshirts will cost $15.00 for small to XL, with an upcharge for larger sizes.

We can also order zip hoodies, if there is enough interest. The hoodies would require our small church logo on the front, but we can still have the same information on the back. The cost for hoodies will be $25.00. We are required to have a minimum order of 12 shirts to order.

Please contact Becky Johnson 315-593-1143 for more information.

Banner's for the Bridges

Kim Doyle of Hair We Are has spearheaded a project to bring attention to local businesses and service groups while raising funds to help the City of Fulton purchase their own Christmas decorations. Banners will be on display on both bridges for all who participate. All Saints' has purchased a banner, which will be on display for two years. The banner should help to bring awareness to our weekly feeding program, and more importantly to our church.

George L. Barlow

It is with deep sadness that we said farewell to our brother and friend, George, in a beautiful service on March 3rd. He was a very special person, and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Please keep his wife Sharon, daughter DeDe, son Don and grandson Jason in your prayers. It was George's wish that contributions in his name be made to All Saints'.

We are still running a fundraising drive to support our Tuesday Night Dinners program. We have raised $1,085 through the GoFundMe website.

The Tuesday Night Dinners program has largely been funded through grants. Those grants are gone and won't be returning. Our small church does what it can, but it cannot support this vital program alone. That's why we're reaching out to community-minded people like you, to help keep the meals coming for Fulton residents in need.

You can send a check to All Saints Episcopal Church, PO Box 542, Fulton, NY 13069. Please feel free to share this information with others. We will also raise funds through a GoFundMe page at <https://www.gofundme.com/tuesdaynight>. Please give if you can. Our program helps people who have nowhere else to turn for a nutritious meal and the fellowship of others. Some of our clients have been coming every week and have become good friends.

Contact Lynn Bullard, 315-598-9535, for more details.
