It was Championship Saturday at Beaver Brook CC and it was no easy task. Everyone was over par and the beer line was Net 82. With all that being said our champions finished 1 and 2 in the standings. In WS, Rick Newport was 3 back of Jim Rinaldi and Bob Babetski at the turn but came alive on the back nine with a winning Net 35 and finished with a winning score of Net 73 both in World Series and DGA, 3 strokes ahead of Dan Price and Bob Babetski.

In Match Play Championship Dan Price had a one shot lead at the turn and Reese Evans could never catch him on the back. Dan shot a Net 37 on the back (2nd PI) and Dan won 3 & 1. It was his first time winning Match Play in his fourth try.

Other notables, Jim Rinaldi had 3 Birdies, Frank Thiry had 8 Net Birdies and Reese Evans had 4 Greenies one which came on the Par 4, 9th hole. Mike Jeffries also had a Greenie on that hole.

The general concensus from the group was no more Beaver Brook. Min summed it the only way he knows how when asked if he'd come again, "No f* way". World Series Office is taking suggestions. As a matter of fact, there may be a poll, so check your email.
