Announcing the New and Improved www.DesignStudioSalem.com

Finally, the long awaited, much anticipated
Design Studio web site is here.

The user friendly site is a comprehensive overview of the many services offered here at Design Studio. A quick look at some of my most recent work in print design, logo development, illustration, photography and custom furniture design.

I've consolidated all previous domain, hosting and publishing services. This allows me to design and publish the site in house. I will now be able to manage and update the site regularly - I really did do the "voodoo" - check it out:
