

Even the Ones We Love (Stupid)

Just sitting here wasted
Wasting time
With a wasted body
And a wasted mind
There were stars in your eyes
Once upon a time
Now, you're just stupid,
Deaf, dumb, and blind

You could have had a future,
If you had faced it.
You could have had your dream come true,
If you had chased it.
Once you had a conscious,
But you misplaced it.
I had a memory of you,
But I erased it.

You wasted yesterday.
You're gonna waste today.
You're wasting, wasting, your life away.
It's none of my business,
That's what you say.
But you're not the only one that has to pay.

I put my finger on the tear track and traced.
Another memory in the scrapbook to be pasted.
If you were trying to break my heart,
You surely ached it.
Another poison apple from the garden tasted.

Just laying there wasted.
Killing time.
Killing your body.
Losing your mind.
Waste another year or two and you will find,
Ghosts of the past closing in from behind.

Life ain't no fantasy.
You can't hide.
It's a beautiful river, deep and wide.
Surrender to the currents.
Roll with the tide.
Let take you on its' glorious ride.

Just sitting here wasted
Wasting time
With a wasted body

And a wasted mind
There were stars in your eyes
Once upon a time
Now, you're just stupid,
Deaf, dumb, and blind

Now, you're just stupid,
Now, you're just stupid,
Stupid
Stupid
