

AGATHA L. LANGE

1910-1998

Agatha L. Lange, 87 of Sebewaing, passed away Thursday, April 9, 1998, in Tendercare Nursing Facility, Cass City, after a short illness.

She was born Oct. 20, 1910, in Unionville, daughter of Herman and Lillian (Nonemann) Reithel.

She and Walter C. Lange were married Dec. 7, 1940, in Immanuel Lutheran Church, Sebewaing. He preceded her in death Jan. 31, 1978.

Mrs. Lange graduated from Mercy Nursing School in Bay City. She was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Ladies Aid, Valpo Guild and Sebewaing Garden Club. She enjoyed watching sports on TV, especially baseball and basketball. She loved flowers and gardening.

She and her late husband enjoyed long friendships with several Michigan governors, especially G. Mennen Williams and John Swainson, and their wives. The Lange farm was one of both governors favorite pheasant hunting spots.

Survivors include her brother, Ralph (Meta) Reithel, Sebewaing; many nieces and nephews including Carol and Rodney Truemner, Sebewaing; Donald and Sue Reithel, Alma; Wayne and Sallie Reithel, Whitmore Lake; Warren and Connie Reithel, Unionville; sisters-in-law Lorna Ziegler and Esther Gremel, both of Saginaw; Dorothy and Art Eberlein, Sebewaing; brothers-in-law, Elmer and Crystal Lange, Saginaw; Norman and Ruth Lange, Plymouth, and Fred Lange, Warren.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, April 11 in Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home, Sebewaing, with Rev. Martin J. Hagenow of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Sebewaing, officiating. Entombment was in Oakwood Mausoleum, Saginaw.

Memorials may be made to Immanuel Church Radio Mission, Building Fund or Church Debt Fund.
