Lydia's Closet Consortium Scholarship Requirements – Continuing undergraduate Application Deadline:

April 1st

(Applicant to retain this section for his or her record and reference)

Lydia's Closet Consortium is a non-profit, charitable, organization established in 2016 for the purpose of granting scholarships and other financial assistance to students and pastors who are active in the advancement of the gospel of Jesus Christ and Christian education. Lydia's Closet Consortium support comes from private donations from Christians, friends, corporations and churches across the United States.

Stipulations for applying for a Lydia's Closet Consortium Scholarship

1. The applicant must be one who desires to serve in some church-related vocation. A church-related vocation is defined as a job in which the primary emphasis is in the areas of preaching or making disciples of Jesus Christ. Some examples of a church-related vocation (ministry) are a job in a local church (a minister, a youth minister, a music minister), a missionary or a professor at a Christian college. (NOTE: LCC does not award scholarships for those majoring in or preparing for a vocation in church business administration, or worship technology.)
2. The applicant must be attending or plan to attend Christian college/university full time (12 hr. minimum).
3. The applicant must have at least a 2.0 cumulative GPA.

Procedure for applying for a Lydia's Closet Consortium Scholarship

1. The application and all information listed below must be completed by the candidate or designated party and be submitted to Lydia's Closet Consortium during open enrollment between Oct. 15 and postmarked on or before April 1st.
 - a. A 500 to 1,000 word typed essay on the subject, "Why I desire to serve Christ in a church-related vocation."
 - b. Transcript of most recent two college semesters completed. (Registrar signed and sealed in envelope)
 - c. One recent photograph of the applicant. Must be a clear wallet size (or larger) picture of only the applicant.
 - d. Completed Dean/Dept. head Evaluation Form. (Sealed in an envelope by the author and returned with the application.)
2. The April 1st deadline applies to all of the above forms and information. It is the responsibility of the applicant to have all materials returned and postmarked on or before April 1st. Applicant may contact the LCC office to check on the status of materials received. (You may wish to send your application by registered or certified mail.)
3. The applicants considered for final selection for a scholarship may be required to attend an interview session and/or participate in a conference call.
4. Applications should be mailed to: Lydia's Closet Consortium, 801 E. Wisconsin St. Oblong, IL 62449. Postmarked no later than April 1.
5. The applicant will be advised of the decision of Lydia's Closet Consortium concerning the application via E-mail.
6. All scholarship awards given will be for one year only, in the amount of $1000./semester.

No continuing undergraduate scholarship recipient may receive a scholarship for the pursuit of a undergraduate degree that extends beyond 8 total semesters.

Stipulations for terminating a Lydia's Closet Consortium Scholarship

1. The stipulations for receiving a Lydia's Closet Consortium scholarship are binding throughout the recipient's education for his church-related vocation. A previous recipient will not be considered for another year's scholarship if any of the following conditions apply. a. If a recipient's career goals change and he/she is no longer pursuing a church-related vocation. b. If a recipient does not maintain a C grade average. c. If a recipient transfers to a college other than one approved by Lydia's Closet Consortium d. If a recipient is no longer considered full-time.
2. The Directors of Lydia's Closet Consortium also reserve the right to terminate a scholarship for what a majority of the board believes to be academic incompetence, immorality or unbecoming conduct on the part of the recipient of a Lydia's Closet Consortium scholarship. Actions such as being placed on probation by the college or being expelled from school will be considered reasons for not considering a future application from an applicant unless strong evidence can be produced that the student has made a dramatic change in his/her life.

Lydia's Closet Consortium Equal Opportunity Policy

Lydia's Closet Consortium is an independent, non-profit grant-making agency based in Oblong, IL operating throughout the United States of America, providing Scholarship support to persons fulfilling qualifications set forth by Lydia's Closet Consortium. Lydia's Closet Consortium complies with all state and federal laws regarding equal rights. Scholarships are given by Lydia's Closet Consortium, regardless of race, color, gender, age, national origin or disability. * The Foundation abides by the equal opportunity laws in all aspects of employment, scholarships, and board members. * The Officers are responsible for formulating, implementing, coordinating, and monitoring all efforts in the area of equal employment opportunity.
