Scoutmaster's Blog

It is with great excitement that we get to continue with the journey that we call scouting. We are fresh off of a wild weekend full of surprises and alterations caused by the weather conditions last week. The boys managed to shift and pivot with a completely new program including hiking, plant identification, wildlife spotting, and water chasing. This weekend certainly did not disappoint with the spectacular views of the wonder of nature through the waterfalls like we have never seen them before. The boys were also excited to get some time to pick roses and make some special cards for Mom (Happy Mother's Day.) While it may seem like we have done so much already this month, stay tuned for the flurry of activities that we still have planned and be sure to look at your email inboxes as we expect to have a multitude of emails and announcements coming with key dates and information regarding all the upcoming events / deadlines. Thank You for your continued support. Chris Kolody Bsa Troop 225

Scoutmaster's Minute

"Sometimes you will never know the value of a moment until it becomes a memory." - Dr. Seuss

- While scouting activities range from fun, educational, physically challenging, or character shaping, our hope is that they all turn into joyous memories that last a lifetime.
