Biography

Richard Arthur Messing, age 87, of Ruth, passed away on Sunday, June 8, 2025.

He was born on April 11, 1938 in Harbor Beach, son of the late Bernard and Rosaline (Booms) Messing. He married Ida Mae Terbrack on November 23, 1963, at St. Peter & St. Paul Catholic Church in Ruth, MI. Richard served in the United States Army in the 1960's. Upon returning home, he worked for his Uncle Roman at Booms Construction for 30 plus years as a painter and carpenter, then he finished out his career at Axley Tool. Richard was a faithful parishioner of Sts.

Peter & Paul Catholic Church in Ruth. He served as a Volunteer Fireman for Sherman Twp in Ruth for 47 plus years retiring in 2015. Richard had a passion for polka dances where he met his future wife. He also enjoyed reading Western novels from cover to cover. Richard was an avid sportsman. He got his prize 6x6 elk in upper Michigan with his nephew in 2008. Richard never missed a year up North at deer camp, and he even went charter fishing with the Veterans on his last Saturday with us.
