

Wayne Smith and Buck Shot

Dog show benefits Boys & Girls Club

The dog show held at the Randolph County Ag-Equine Center Saturday, May 14, brought out some fantastic canines.

The trophy for best costume went to Bella, a white standard poodle attired in a pink T-shirt with lots of bling, a flared skirt and matching hat. Her owner is Alecia Fisher of Roanoke.

The trophy for the dog who looked most like his owner was won by Buck Shot, a 211-pound bull mastiff owned by Wayne Smith of Heflin.

The show was fun for the dogs and their owners and brought in about $675 for the local Boys & Girls Club.
