Police Specialty Units - 2018

Gang Investigation & VICE Unit Investigation

Time: TBD (6 hrs.)

CA Judicial Council CIMCE-CEU Credits/Hrs. Six (6)

Location: TBD

Instructor: Jeff Torres, Interpreter Training Group

Date: TBD

Method of Delivery: Instructor Led / Live Instructor - Webinar

Course Description:

This Non-Language Specific six (6) credit hour, Instructor led course*, will outline and familiarize the Student with Professional Interpreter protocol used in conjunction with court testimony and investigations specific to Vice and Gang Investigation Units. Students will gain a broad understanding of a variety of criminal investigations, investigation specific terminology, and the type of crimes that demand specialized Investigators and specific terminology during courtroom testimony.

This Course will be broken in to two sections with the first topic covered being gang investigation units. This topic will cover current gang terminology/phrases, lifestyle, prison organization, gang proliferation and the seemingly unending variants to gang initiation, participation and cultural diversity in today's gang environment.

The second portion of this class will cover the wide variety of "Vice" related crimes in today's society. This class will outline specific crimes involved in Vice Unit Investigations and the associated terminology/phrases specific to these crimes. The class will outline in detail the specific correlation between today's street Gangs and the ever present "vice crime" activity that involves prostitution, sex/human trafficking, gambling and a myriad of other "social" crimes that affect our communities and court system. Course may also be presented via webinar with "live" interactive Instructor facilitated participation.
