Fold Name: A herd of Highland Cattle is generally referred to as a “ Fold “ and the fold name (stud name) will be used as suffix to all registered names of animals bred in your fold, in the format “Animal Name of Fold Name” (e.g. “Buttercup of Jacoo”). Each Fold name may be up to 16 characters, including spaces, with no more than three words.

Tattoo Brands: Members are required to register a unique tattoo brand, although tattooing your cattle is optional if cattle are identified by NLIS identifiers. The Tattoo Brand may be made up of two to three letters pertaining to the Fold name. All members are required to register a tattoo brand whether or not they intend to tattoo their animals. Members may opt to tattoo each animal showing the Fold Prefix, Year Letter and Calf Number. Please refer to the AHCS registration rules for requirements applicable to the identification of calves by tattoo branding.

National Livestock Identification Scheme (NLIS): Members whose Folds are located in states where the NLIS identification is compulsory must apply the tags and are not required to tattoo. Contact your local Department of Primary Industries for more information.
