

Kitchen Time

Look for the following words associated with the kitchen

ACROSS

- Substance used with water for washing
- Different word for oven
- Piece of furniture with a flat top where people eat
- Long-handled utensil with a wide blade used when lifting or flipping food
- Utensil for whipping eggs, cream, and other liquids by hand
- A machine for cleaning plates, glassware, silverware, cookware, etc.
- Pot with a lid, spout, and handle typically used for boiling water
- Appliance that takes the fluid out of fruits and vegetables.
- Utensil used to turn a potato into a soft pulp

DOWN

- Made of thick, often quilted, fabric and used for taking hot items from the oven
- Common name for eating and serving utensils that may or may not denote their color or material
- Large, long-handled spoon for serving soup or stew
- Machine that brews coffee and was around long before the coffeemaker
- A frying pan
- Device set for a number of minutes to let a cook know when food is done
- Seats that usually have four legs and a back
- Pad placed under an individual setting at a dining table

Visit www.seasonedtimes.com. We are not old, we are seasoned!

