EASTER

'There was not a needy person among them.' – Acts 4:34a (NRSV)

This Easter we will continue our Easter tradition at St. John's UCC. We will begin with an early sunrise worship celebrating the discovery of the empty tomb. Following this, we will gather in the Fellowship Hall and enjoy a tasty breakfast. After breakfast, we will watch the young children hunt Easter eggs around the church. We will culminate the morning with our traditional morning worship centered around the resurrection of Jesus.

These are wonderful experiences we will participate in during Easter. However, I wonder how many of us will contemplate and reach deep into our souls and ask the questions, "What does Easter and the resurrection of Jesus mean to me and the modern church — St. John's UCC?" "How will we share the good news?"

The first Christians certainly did. In Acts, whenever they met, "the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus." Surely they included their own stories, like Peter's transformation from a fisherman into a preacher or Mary Magdalene's experience as the first witness to the Resurrection.

Yet Acts 4:34 doesn't include such personal testimonies. Instead it tells of a community testimony. The first Christians gave up their possessions, just as Jesus had given up his life for others. The early church made sure no one was in need, just as Jesus ensured five thousand hungry people were fed, sick people healed, troubled people comforted and loved.

The new Christian community wasn't focused on seeing the Risen Body of Christ, but on being the Risen Body of Christ, doing what Jesus had done. They didn't just proclaim God's resurrection power. They became that power by offering new life to others.

Our world needs that resurrection power now more than ever. It also needs the church— St. John's United Church of Christ — to be an Easter people by giving ourselves and our possessions. The first Christians knew they were living into God's new life where no one was in need. They knew this was the way of the Risen Body of the Risen Christ.

*Grace and peace,
Rev. Jeff McCam*

REMEMBERING

April is upon us, and Spring is finally here! As we continue our journey through the season of Lent, we anticipate the celebration of Easter on April 20.

This is the month I will be celebrating seventy-two years of life. When I think back about my life, my mom comes to mind. I remember asking my mom about how they decided on my name. The Stephens family had three boys prior to me. Mom told me she prayed so hard to Christ for a baby girl that, when I was born, my name was going to be Christine. The feminine form of the name Christian, it means "follower of Christ". I hope I have lived my life in a way that I am measuring up to the meaning of my name.

As Christians, this is the month we will celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Jesus came to us as a baby, lived life as a human on this earth, learned from his parents, and was obedient to his heavenly Father as he grew to become a man. But, Jesus knew his life was destined for a greater purpose; death on a cross, his resurrection, and ascension to his Father, giving us the promise of eternal life.

1 Peter 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. In His great mercy, he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. NIV

Just as my mom rejoiced in the birth of her girl, may we rejoice in the resurrection of our Lord, knowing that our belief in Him promises us eternal life.

CONSISTORY HIGHLIGHTS

MARCH 10, 2025

- The revaluation of our parsonage, church and assets for insurance coverage needs to be scheduled.
- The outside review of financial records and practices is in progress. The reviewer is astounded with the number of financial transactions we handle and the details of our record keeping.
- A new adjustable office chair will be purchased for the Administrative Assistant from Memorial funds.
- The free will offering for the Easter breakfast will support the Operating Fund.
- A policy was adopted to provide a memorial in the case of death of a paid employee or spouse.
- The building improvement task force will be meeting with the Sonnenberg family to determine some direction in line with their wishes.
- There are a few who still need to attend Safe Church Training.
- Due to inclement weather two Sunday services were cancelled in February. However, giving to the church was very good with contributions exceeding expenses.
- The payment for the annual replacement of roof slates was moved from the operating fund to major maintenance.
- Minor changes to the wording on the giving envelopes was approved.
- All reports for consideration by Consistory must be in the office by the Thursday preceding the Consistory meeting – no reminders from the office.
- To comply with county regulations, the septic systems for the church and parsonage will be pumped and inspected.

News and Notes

Submitted By Nancy Thomas
March 9, 2025

Easter plans were discussed and we again are planning on a Easter egg hunt.

- Mary Kay has volunteered to stuff the eggs for the event.
- There is a box for any candy or monetary donations located in the narthex. Deadline is April 6.
- There will be a drawing for gift baskets for the children also on that day.
- It was discussed to have the children chalk paint the sidewalks in between the church services while the egg hunt is set up inside the church. It was decided to have it indoors due to never knowing weather conditions and to avoid any car traffic for safety reasons.

Unfortunately there will be no pool party this year. There were no open dates at this time. We are giving some thought to other ideas.

VBS was discussed. We are looking for a volunteer(s) to head this up. Anybody interested please let us know. It will be fun!!!!
