

Civil Commitment:

Conduct a clinical evaluation, utilizing psychological tests or risk assessment measures, review records, interview collaterals, and provide an opinion, report, and testimony regarding whether a person meets criteria for civil commitment under the law.