Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

Early intervention is a program for children from birth through age two offering infants and toddlers and their families services and supports to enhance child development in the areas of cognition, speech, communication, physical, motor, vision, hearing, social-emotional developmental, and self help skills, parent-child or family interactions; and early identification, screening and assessment services. There were 109 persons served. Expenses $208,265.

Family support services provide an array of supportive services to the person with a development disability and his/her family when the person remains within the family home, thereby preventing or delaying the need for out-of-home placement that is unwanted by the person or the family. There were 42 persons served. Expenses $136,290.

Adult supported living services (State funded) augment already available supports for those adults who either can live independently with limited support or who, if they need extensive support, are getting that support from other sources, such as family. Services provided may include a combination of life-long or extended duration supervision, training, and/or support such as Day Habilitation Services and Supported Employment. The Center has no responsibility for the living arrangement in the community. There were 16 persons served. Expenses $109,956.

Children's extensive supports provide needed services and supports to eligible children under the age of eighteen years in order for the child to remain or return to the family home. This program is a deeming waiver meaning only the child's income is considered in determining eligibility. Waiver services are targeted to children
