GOLDEN HILLS GOLF CLUB REGISTRATION AT 11:00 A.M. SHOTGUN START AT 12:00 P.M.

Cancer of Many Colors Foundation (CMC) is pleased to host the annual Jay Criscione & Family Golf Tournament of Hope at the Golden Hills Country Club. Proceeds from this event will benefit local cancer survivors struggling to pay their basic living expenses.

Jay Criscione, former Executive Director for the Lexington County Recreation & Aging Commission was diagnosed with throat cancer in 2006 and passed away with bile duct cancer in 2009. He was an avid golfer and loved playing the game with his father John, brother Richard and friends. John, former golf teaching pro passed away with breast cancer in 1981. Richard passed away with leukemia in 2007.

CMC was created in honor of the Criscione family.
