

Nutrient Advisors has established itself as the elite compliance record keeping and manure management service for livestock operations. Nutrient Advisors goal is to provide peace of mind to our clients while minimizing their time spent on compliance, and helping them to maximize the return from their manure resources. With an emphasis on agronomy, Nutrient Advisors has the ability to return revenue to their clients by utilizing their manure fertilizers on their own farms and through sales programs. Nutrient Advisors has a very elite clientele in the cattle feeding, pork, poultry, and dairy industries.

Position Title: Land App Records Technician

Position Definition & Duties: This position is a professional office position with much diversity that will be responsible for collecting, organizing, and managing data collected from clients' fields that is necessary in maintaining environmental compliance of their operation and manure fertilizer applications. This position will produce very detailed and professional compliance documents and manure sales tools such as Application maps, Nutrient Budgets and Manure Value Calculators. The position allows an individual to encompass a project from beginning to end, which will bring efficiency as well as results.

Position Qualifications: The applicant must be extremely organized and detail oriented. Knowledge and experience of GIS systems and software is preferred but not required. The applicant must be proficient with county plat books and legal descriptions. The applicant should possess good problem solving skills, have the ability to meet deadlines, and adapt to changing priorities. Honesty and integrity are a must and the highest level of client confidentiality is essential. At all times provide a positive visual and verbal image. A two year degree and a good understanding of agriculture will be preferred.