The World War I Memorial Plaque at the Orange Courthouse

“With the centennial of the end of World War I occurring on November 11, we thought it would be fitting to remember the Orange County men who fought in that war by printing the text of the memorial plaque at the courthouse:

‘IN HONOR OF THE MEN OF
ORANGE COUNTY VIRGINIA
WHO SERVED IN THE GREAT WAR
AND IN MEMORY OF THE EIGHTEEN
WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES

DAVID ASHBY McINTOSH
