

This workshop has been approved for and offers 12 contact hours. BAP-321, Exp. 03/27.

April 29 - 30, 2025
8:30 AM – 3:30 PM (ET)

CLINICAL SUPERVISION
PRESENTER: NANCY GORDON, LCSW

This course explores the most critical, important and impactful professional relationship that a social worker will have. The supervisory relationship determines how social workers conduct themselves in the clinical, ethical, legal, and regulatory domains of their practice.

Registration:
NASW Member - $200.00
Future-Member - $250.00

*This course fulfills the requirement to be a Qualified Supervisor under Chapter 491.
Attendees must attend all 12 hours, no partial credit and be on camera.*

Registration closes 4 pm (ET) April 28. The zoom link will then be sent.

To register, please visit: <https://www.naswfl.org/events.html>

